All rising sophomores in English 10 will read The Great Divorce by C. S. Lewis. After reading this book, all students will complete the following assignment.

Write a one-page paper describing C.S Lewis' depiction of either heaven or hell. Choose one character from either heaven or hell and describe this person.

1. Paper should be 3-5 paragraphs.
2. Use clear language (to include specific examples from the text) to describe the scene and character that you chose to analyze.
3. Ask yourself these questions:
  - What type of place is heaven/hell according to C. S. Lewis?
  - What is it like for those who dwell there?
  - What type of people dwell in heaven/hell; how are they similar or different?

Include at least one quote from the book to help describe the person and place.

The assignment must be typed in Times Roman, Font 12, double spaced.

Your name should appear on the top left of the page with the date below it.

Bring the paper to class on the first day of school. It will count as a quiz grade and will be used as part of another assignment during the first week of school.
